Reply to Lord Lansdowne's Denial

Maintains Claim About Paucato's Actions.

Berlin, Feb. 24.—The reply of Germany to the complaint of Lord Lansdowne, the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, concerning the publication by Germany of the despatch from Doctor von Holleben (German Ambassador to the United States) with regard to the meeting of the British Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, and which asserts that Doctor von

Holleben misinterpreted the action of Lord Paucafoote (British Ambassador to the United States) in attending, maintains the correctness of Doctor von Holleben's dispatch.

The reply of the German Government suggests that the British Government publica Lord Paucafoote's report of this same conference.

OLD MAN RESCUED FROM THE RIVER.

John Kaehnel After Being Robbed

Nearly Lost His Life.

John Kaehnel, 73 years old, living at No.

1415 North Eighth street, St. Louis, was rescued from the Mississippi River yesterday morning by Charles H. Thornton of Porter avenue, East St. Louis. Kaehnel lives with his daughter, and some time ago he had a burglar who came to his home and stole a large sum of money and robbed the old man of $20, all of his savings. He did not tell his daughter, but borrowed 10 cents from her. He walked across the bridge to East St. Louis, and on his return decided to cross on the ice and save the bridge toll. He stepped onto some rotten ice, which broke under him.

Thornton was near by and he grabbed the old man before the latter sank to his arms and save the bridge toll. He stepped onto

some rotten ice, which broke under him.

DISPUTE ABOUT THE BODY OF AUTOMOBILE VICTIM TO BE HEARD.

The replevin suit over the body of Harry McKane, who was killed on an automomobile on the East bridge two weeks ago, will be heard by Justice of the Peace P. J.

McKane this afternoon. Much interest has been aroused in the case, and it is presented that Justice McKane will have to temporarily transfer his office to the City

Court room.

Greenlee's body was taken to Kurrus's undertaking establishment immediately after the accident, and there, Coroner Cracker held the inquest. Shortly thereafter, Mrs.

Briggett Duffy, the boarding-house keeper, appeared with a writ of replevin secured before Justice McKane and had the body removed to the Walsh undertaking establishment. Walsh shipped the body to Belle Plaine, La., the young man's home.

Mr. Kurrus, through his attorney, will file a telegram authorizing him to take charge of the body. McKane said that the case will be hotly contested.

Death of Mrs. J. W. Brichler.

Mrs. Agnes Brichler, wife of J. W. Brichler, secretary-treasurer of the Benner-ly East and Undertaking Company of East St. Louis, last night, Mrs. Brichler recently returned from a visit to her home. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brichler, who were married in 1884. She was 49 years old.

East St. Louis Items.

Thomas H. Johnson was struck by a
